Article: Disney's New Princess

Page 11

Many children all over the world continue to grow up with Disney's princesses, and relate to the struggles and triumphs that the characters experience as keenly as if they were the princesses themselves. Disney's undisputed global outreach and influence also means that it plays a significant cultural role in the global sphere, and strongly shapes the psyche of boys and girls all over the world.

1. Why does Brode say it is 'about time that we have an animated Latin princess'?
2. What is the online commentator's argument?
3. What is the contradiction in Disney's public communication regarding Princess Sofia's background?
4. What are common objections against Disney princesses?
